DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-2, 4, 21-22, 24-33, 35-37 are allowed. The cited prior art does not teach two portions of perforations with different sizes in combination with the other limitations of the independent claims.
2. Claim 39 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims for the reasons given above.
3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.
4. Claim 38 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Strong (U.S. 4,286,002) in view of Jackson (U.S. 4,280,487).

Art Unit: 1772

Strong teaches a fabric type absorbent layer between a slit or perforated cover sheet and an impermeable back sheet for use under a bed ridden patient (abstract, col. 2, lines 5-10). Jackson teaches circulation of air through a space formed by an impermeable back layer and a perforated top layer to provide fresh air to a bed ridden patient with inlet and outlets for the air provided (abstract, Figure 2). The instant invention claims two layers with a middle fabric layer with the upper layer perforated to allow air flow and an air inlet. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide an inlet in the laminate of Strong in order to allow air circulation to prevent bed sores because of the teachings of Jackson.

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
